

Mr Edmund Lee

Consulting Leader, PwC Hong Kong

Edmund is a partner responsible for leading a number of Finance Consulting team across China, a multi-disciplinary group of former practicing accountants, treasurers and finance system professionals supporting clients on finance change initiatives (e.g., IFRS conversion / embedment into their monthly reporting cycle, integrating / designing new finance processes / systems). Edmund has worked with many of the world's leading corporations advising on a broad range of finance transformation and integration projects.

Edmund has spent significant time working on projects within a variety of industry groups with PwC Canada and PwC China. He is well versed in a wide variety of functional areas including internal and external reporting and performance management.

Edmund graduated from the University of Waterloo, Canada where he earned a Bachelor of Mathematics and a Master of Accounting. He is also a Canadian Chartered Accountant.