

Mr Christopher Jackson
Assistant Executive Director
Hong Kong Trade Development Council

Mr Christopher Jackson is the Assistant Executive Director at the Hong Kong Trade Development Council (TDC), the statutory organisation responsible for promoting and developing Hong Kong's external trade.

Mr Jackson is responsible for the TDC's International Promotions Department and directing the planning, finance, human resources and administration functions of the Council.

Mr Jackson served in the Hong Kong Government from 1976 to 2005, working in a variety of posts, including Deputy Private Secretary to then Governor, Sir David Wilson, and Deputy Director of the Hong Kong Trade Department.

He became Deputy Secretary of the Hong Kong Government's Civil Service Branch and was then posted to Washington DC, as Director General of the Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office. He served in Washington from 1996 to 2000, before being named the Hong Kong SAR Government's Special Representative to the European Union, based in Brussels. There, he also covered Hong Kong's trade and economic relations with 14 EU member states.

Mr Jackson is married with three children.

July 2007